Junichi Ihara

Consul General of Japan in Los Angeles

Tuesday, September 6, 2011 6:00 pm

Hilton Suite 100

Mr. Junichi Ihara was appointed Consul General of Japan in Los Angeles in April 2008. Prior to this appointment, he served as Deputy Director-General of Asian and Oceanian Affairs Bureau. His recent positions include Minister at the Embassy of Japan in the United States (2004-2006), Director of Financial Affairs Division (2002-2004), Director of the WTO Division (1999-2002), Director of the First Southeast Asia Division (1997-1999), and Director of Office of the Vice-Minister for Foreign Affairs (1995-1997).

Mr. Ihara graduated from Kyoto University.

Mr Ihara will discuss the recent disasters, implications for Japan and the international business community, and the anticipated trajectory for the ongoing recovery in Japan -- one of the United States’ closest and most important business partners and global allies in many fields.
