

The Rotary Club of Downtown Los Angeles

invites you to a special presentation by

Mrs. Masako Unoura Tanaka:

Surviving the 3.11 Great East Japan Earthquake and Tsunami

Thursday, January 31, 2013
6:30-8:00pm

Los Angeles Athletic Club
431 West Seventh Street, Los Angeles 90014

Renowned architect and the creator of the LAX pylons Ted Tokio Tanaka, FAIA almost lost his wife in the March 11, 2011 Great East Japan Earthquake and Tsunami. Come hear Masako Unoura Tanaka's inspiring story of survival and about her ongoing efforts to aid the affected region, including her coastal hometown of Ofunato, where her father has been a Rotarian for 50 years.

Co-presented by the Japan America Society of Southern California. Since the earthquake and tsunami, the society has raised nearly $1.5 million in relief and recovery funds.

Cost: $25 per person; light dinner will be served.

Fellowship Hour (no-host): Beginning at 5:00 pm, Athletic Club Bar (3F)

Parking: Available in LAAC structure for $2 (Entrance off Olive St.)

Please RSVP by January 28 to Jennifer Usyak at 818.744.3581 or jennifer@rotarydla.org
