

5TH GOLD SYMPOSIUM

2013 REFLECT • RENEW • REINVENT DRIVING INNOVATION THROUGH INCLUSION

Friday, March 22, 2013 • InterContinental Hotel, Los Angeles, CA

This symposium will bring together influential leaders from Japan and the U.S. to share their insights into business advantages gained through the execution of the “Diversity & Inclusion” strategy.

Benefits

- Find new ways to build inclusive organizations that drive innovation and deliver results
- Discover creative leadership tools and skills required to be successful 21st century leaders
- Hear innovative social entrepreneurs share best practices and create new possibilities
- Make meaningful connections with business and professional leaders across the Pacific
- Be inspired by and learn from speakers and colleagues from a broad range of industries and geographies

Who should attend

Current and future corporate, business, academic, non-profit and entrepreneurial women and men leaders who value international collaboration and wish to expand their networks.

Registration Fee

| | |
|--|-------|
| Early Bird (before 2/15/2013) | $200 |
| Regular Registration (after 2/16/2013) | $250 |
| Students | $150 |

Speakers (Partial List)

Hon. Aida M. Alvarez
Former Administrator
U.S. Small Business Administration
Member
President Clinton's Cabinet

Yasufumi Hirai
President and General Manager
Cisco Systems G.K. Japan

Deborah L. DeHaas
Vice Chairman and
Chief Inclusion Officer
Deloitte LLP

Toshihiro Nakamura
Co-Founder and CEO
Kopernik

Hosting Organization

Global Organization for Leadership and Diversity

Founded in 2006, GOLD is a Los Angeles based non-profit organization dedicated to developing global women leaders and building leadership bridges across the Pacific.

Corporate Sponsors:

Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ

MATTEL, INC.

To register online or for more information, please visit: www.GOLDleaders.org