

The Hydrogen Solution Series

The potential role of hydrogen energy in decarbonizing society is increasingly recognized by governments throughout the world, industry, and the global investment community. Please join us for these important discussions on the prospects and opportunities related to Japan's efforts to create a robust and global hydrogen energy sector, to fuel the vision of a clean "Hydrogen Society."

Part 1

Japan's Leadership in Building a Hydrogen Society

March 3, 2021 (Wed.)
@5pm-6pm (PST)

Eiji OHIRA
Director, The New Energy and Industrial Technology Development Organization (NEDO)

Jeff Simmons
Senior Vice President & General Manager, Marketing & Sales Operations, Toshiba America Energy Systems Corp.

Part 2

Los Angeles' Green Energy Goals and Collaboration from Japan

March 9, 2021 (Tue.)
@4pm-5pm (PST)

Lauren Faber O'Connor
Chief Sustainability Officer, City of Los Angeles

Peter J. Sawicki
Regional Director, Sales and Marketing, Mitsubishi Power Americas, Inc.

Craig Scott
GM of Electrified Vehicle & Technology Office, Toyota Motor North America

Co-presented by JAPAN HOUSE Los Angeles, Consulate General of Japan in Los Angeles, Japan America Society of Southern California

<https://japanhousela.swoogo.com/hydrogen-society-and-japan>